PALESTINE, TEXAS, SEPTEMBER 11, 1903.

THE LESSON OF THE BOLL WEEVIL.

The Buffalo Banner man gets this moral out of the boll weevil:

We have livey in Leon since 1858, and have seen many crop failures—that means light cotton crops. similar to the present one; we have known the people to owe more and own less; we have seen the farmers living in log huts, with a small per cent. of their land under a brush fence, trying to make a crop on the grass; we have walked four miles through the woods to school; also the same distance to the church, where the wealthier classes came in ox carts; we have lived here when wolves and alligators were our only play-fellows—when we had biscuits only on Sunday morning, when good crops were made; we have seen nice ladies—slave-holders—wear home-spun dresses and shuck bonnets to church, while their 16 or 18-year-old son, or daughter went bare-foot; we have seen all this and more, too; but we never saw people wilt as they do with the boll weevil after them.

We are right in the middle of a panic, and will be there until the cotton is gathered and sold. After that, there will be nothing to growl about, and farmers will begin to think how to raise more than one crop a year to depend upon; and within two or three years from now we will be glad that the weevil came to destroy cotton and credit.

SO GOOD.

"Let us have peace!" No man or woman can be in harmony with God who is at discord with their neighbor. Wrath, anger, spite and contentions! Are these not sins, can any harbor such against God's children and against God's work?—Daily Visitor.

Then in the same issue of the "family paper":

The coming school tax election is one of vital interest to the children of Palestine. Will our ladies take as much interest in this as the one just past?

Wrath, anger, spite and contentions! Are these not sins, and how can any harbor such against God's children and believe they are doing God's work? We give it up. They must be kinder foolish.

The boll weevil scare has caused our farmers to be careful and saving. A "bumper" cotton crop would have turned the purse strings loose, and money would have been spent recklessly and foolishly. As it is, there is going to be a whole lot of cotton made, despite the destructive bugs and worms, and the increased price on cotton is going to bring to the farmer's pockets lots of cotton money. With cribs full of corn, big fat hogs to provide meat for the smoke house, and pockets full of money, the farmer is going to be in a pretty good fix for at least another year in spite of the boll weevil.

It is much easier to pick cotton than to pick a "winner." A hint to the young men should be sufficient, but it would never get some of them into the cotton field.

TRAIN service to Pike's Peak has been suspended on account of snow drifts. But the ice man down here feels no alarm.

ELEVEN cent cotton! How it must make a farmer feel puffed up when he sells a bale.

TAKE OUT LIVE

MAN'S HEART

Remarkable Operation on Matthew Plowman May Cheat Death.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—An operation on the heart of Matthew Plowman, who was stabbed in a fight with James Corneet Saturday, may save the man's life. At Mercy hospital, where he was taken, physicians took out his heart this morning and sewed it up. Then oxygen was administered continuously and last night it was said he probably would live until morning. He has a possible chance of recovery, the physicians say.

Plowman and Corneet were employees of a livery stable in Cottage Grove avenue, and, it is said, quarreled over the affections of Miss Isabella McMaster, who was employed at the restaurant at which they boarded. Plowman was stabbed with a bread knife in the left breast. The wound almost cut his heart in two. When it was seen that the man would die in a few hours if the wound was not closed, the operation was decided on as the only possible means of saving his life. Although acquaintances of the two men said the fight arose over Miss McMaster, the young woman's mother denies that such was the case. She said her daughter did not know Corneet.

The Trinity Valley Land Co.,

of St. Louis Mo., has opened a branch office in Royall's Bank building, with C. Roe Hall, of this place, as manager, and will do a general real estate business. This company now owns 51,000 acres of unimproved lands in this and adjoining counties, all of which is for sale on easy terms to actual settlers.

The management of this office is familiar with land values throughout East Texas. The St. Louis office being in close touch with the northern buyers, who will have an opportunity to visit Texas at least once each month on a very low rate of transportation, there is no reason why vacant lands of this county should not begin to be improved materially in near future.

All who want to buy, sell or exchange real estate, in or out of city, are respectfully invited to call at office. ROOM 3, OVER ROYALL'S BANK. PHONE NO. 291. 12td w2t

A Message to Dyspeptics.

Why are we dyspeptic? The predisposing causes from the old school are: 1st, improper hygiene; 2nd, malnutrition; 3rd, various anemias; 4th, gouty and rheumatic subjects; 5th, tuberculous, cancerous and malarial dyscrasias; 6, hyperemia of stomach; 7th, sickly and delicate children, convalescents from acute diseases and inveterate chronic invalids.

The excitants are: 1st, dietetic, 2nd, certain drugs, as the salicylates, iodides, bromides, arsenic and mercury; 3rd, acute infectious fevers; 4th, influence of cold (probable); 5, myocytie.

Cause from the Osteopathic view: A disturbance in the anatomical structures of the spine serves to overthrow the balance of the nervous system in such a way that the stomach and intestines are robbed of their normal nervous energy; at the same time there is a deprivation of blood in those organs, (stomach and intestines).

With both the blood supply and physiological control of these organs thus abridged, the way is open to every sort of defective functioning—which means disease.

Osteopaths view the anatomy of the neck for obstruction of nervous transmissions through the right and left pneumogastric nerves, and the spinal connection through the sympathetic organs, removing any obstruction of whatever nature, thereby supplying the organs with their normal nervous energy and blood supply from which health will issue, if only the excitants as claimed by the old school be withheld, especially Nos. 1 and 2.

Greatest per cent of cures from dyspeptics have come through osteopathic treatments, as can be substantiated by living witnesses. ANDREW A. SPEEGLE, Osteopathic Physician.

You May Be Cured

544 Garfield Avenue,
Chicago, Ill., October 9, 1902.

After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhoea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Cardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Cardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Cardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Frances Kingsley

Vice-Pres., Chicago Historical Club.

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Cardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingsley writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
